We have before us the Ringgold Express, of the 23d ult., in which is a long mittee did make the call, say, to New article on the subject, and which, while York, and Northern delegations met abusing Mr. Rigg, in true Southern there, and the Southern delegations, adstyle, substantially admits the facts as hering strictly, as is their wont, to austated by us. The Express admits that Would it not be a propitious event.— Mr. Rigg purchased the farm for some The South, consisting of nearly all the $2,000, as stated, and was quietly at work Democracy, would lay down a constituupon it. The Express proceeds:

"About this time the outbreak at Harper's Ferry occurred, and as the news of pulous unsoundness of the Northern Dethe terrible conspiracy sped over the country, an excitement sprang up at the South, the like of which never has been equaled since the days of the Revolution. Lynch's law was administered to various beat back the hosts of Abolitionists, or were successfully ma Abolitionists in the South. This came to give deliverance to the Southern States." Rigg slid, leaving nearly all his property behind in the hands of an officer, to settle his debts."

So it seems that Mr. Rigg slid, and was not at all injured or driven away by the chivalry. True, the chivalry were very much "excited"-had "lynched" various Abolitionists-had dogged his steps, and thrown out their threats-had. under the forms of law, attached three or four thousand dollars worth of property to secure the payment of a few hundred. which was not due-had sworn out a warrant for his arrest and imprisonment, -and his attorney advised him that he could do nothing to save him. Yet this organ of the chiavlry proceeds to say,

"If he has lost his property, he did it by his own folly and bad management. -It is not true that the citizens of this place or surrounding county have robbed him or taken his money from him. The School; people of this community have never harmed the man, and never would if he had stayed here and behaved himself like a white man. But we have no hesitancy in saying that if he had been found tampering with our slaves, and inciting them to insurrection, he would have been whipped like blazes, and perhaps given a free ride and a new coat.'

The Express then goes on to say that it is incredible to suppose that the amount of money and property which Mr. Rigg had, "should set the whole country after him, laying plots and devising schemes by which he could be robbed of it."-And winds up with this statement, which, whether incredible or not, we will not presume to say. DR. ROBACK—Dear Sir: I have not the time to write you of the benefit conferred by your Scandinavian Blood Pills and Blood Purifier. I took them for a disease of the throat, and they not only benefitted it but my general health, also, I am now actually better than for eight years. They cured Miss Ellen Waite, of this place, of Liver Complaint and weakness of the Spine. Mrs. Elizabeth Cross was cured of terrible shooting pains in the stomach and side, which had buffled the efforts of several good Physicians. The value of your medicines could be established by any amount of evidence, if need be, in this vicinity.

Yours Respectfully.

WM. SHAW.
